

I do give and bequeath unto my beloved wife Mary my son Paulinus part of land to her use unto he is of Age I do hereby submit this my last will and Testament unto the judgement and management of my said Executors relying on their fidelity and Good conduct as witness my hand and seal this ninth day of December in the year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and Ninety and nine

we the said witnesses do Acknowledge this to be the last and declared Will and Testament of Israel Stur who hath declared this to be his last will & Testament in our presence.

Israel Stur
 Elias Messman
 Joseph Berwell.
 Samuel L. Phine.

In the Name of God, Creator of Heaven Earth the Living and all the Quick and Dead. I have many beautiful mercies to wish us all and particularly such as being very sick and weak in Body but of perfect mind and memory thanks be given unto God. I Richard Cundstein have been living in the world. when all things is mortalising & become to ashes in Charles township Fayette County and Commonwealth of Pennsylvania where the expiration of my natural life seems to terminate I therefore now and ordain this my last will and Testament, that is to say principally and first of all I give and recommend by and through the great mercies of Christ Jesus Christ my soul into the hands of Almighty God that gave it and my body I recommend to the earth to be buried after our custom of Christian Burial nothing doubting but at the General Resurrection I shall receive the same again by the mighty power of God and as touching such worldly Estate where-with it has pleased God to bless me in this life I give devise and dispose of the same in the following manner and form. First I give and bequeath to Margaret my dearly beloved wife the Bedsted Bed & Beddings or all the furniture belong to one bed. I have in my own use. the Dressure with all and sing ular the Kitchen furniture. my black mare one cow. and two sheep. which she may think proper to take out of the stock the dwelling house with the Garden and there is for her use and living during the time of her natural life. the three Books. the first with the title Friedrich Christian Christoph Gleim's Gesammte Werke. the second with the title Is. Gylmoltens Einbildung. the third is the Hymn Book - which he owns besides and exclusive the third share out of all what the Law directs I give to my well beloved Son Philip Cundstein one hundred acres of Land. it being that part of my plantation whereon I now dwell. including the Orchard which piece of Land. he is to have for himself. his heirs and assigns forever. with all and singular the improvements thereon erected and made. subject as follows to wit he shall have up possession of the House where in I now dwell. neither of the same till after the expiration of the natural life of his mother. he is also to give the use of the Spring and other waters to her as also he is to dig. Now cultivate as much Ground as may be requisite for our pick of flax seed on the said hundred acres. when she may deem proper. as well as the said Garden. he is to dig flow and cultivate yearly and every for the use of her. the necessary firewood he must for his mother find as much as may keep her comfortable warm and for her other use. during the life of her. fifty pounds of Corn. and fifty pounds of Beef he is to find for her yearly and every year and is to keep in pasture good and stable one horse creature one cow and two sheep for the use and benefit of his mother during her natural life. all this he must do without any charges and give her yearly and every year the third out of the said Land according to Law as above said. As also he is to give yearly and every year. the third of the Fruits out of the Orchard on his Land to his Brother Nicholas Cundstein during the natural life of his mother and is to pay the sum of One hundred and ten pounds. after the expiration of the natural life of his mother. thirty six pounds thirteen shillings and four pence to his Brother George Cundstein and the thirty six pounds thirteen shillings and four pence to his Sister Catharina Cundstein of which to be remaining thirty six pounds. thirteen shillings and four pence of which he is to pay to his youngest Brother John Cundstein. I also give him one sheep besides the equal share of the movables as the Law directs in pair of horses two head of Cattle. Cows and Swine there and Double try he is also to receive besides his equal share as aforesaid - as well as one sheep to my well beloved Son Nicholas Cundstein I give the residue of my plantation to have and to hold with all and singular the Subpments thereon erected and made to the only proper use of him sell his Hirs and Assigns forever for which he is to contribute and pay yearly and every year to his mother one full a bushel of salt during her lifetime and is to pay the sum of forty pounds. thirty two pounds. six shillings and eight pence. of which he is to pay to his Sister Catharina Cundstein one year after the expiration of my life. the Remainder he is to pay. after the expiration of the natural life of his mother fifteen pounds six shillings and eight pence. to his mother George Cundstein and the remainder of which thirty pounds six shillings and eight pence to his youngest Brother John Cundstein. I also I give to my son Nicholas the sum of four pounds in Cash to be borrowed out of my movable Effects besides the Equal share he is to receive according to Law whom I likewise constitute make and ordain the sole Executor of this my last will and Testament - my much esteemed Son George Cundstein is to receive the sums above said of his Brothers Philip and Nicholas at the time severally appointed for payment besides the equal share of the movables entitled to by my only well beloved Daughter Catharina I give the way young mare with with a woman's saddle one cow with the calf and a yearling Steer a Bedsted Bed and Beddings or all the furniture. belonging thereto find receive the sums above mentioned for her Brother Phillip and Nicholas as the payments severally are appointed and obtain the equal share of the movables directed by Law he is also a Spinning wheel is for her exapied and likewise two sheep. I ordain also my much beloved youngest Son John Cundstein to live with his mother till he is arrived to the age of sixteen years. and then he is to chuse himself a Trade to learn. and give him all and singular my clothing. the Black Stillion Colt and one sheep. and receive the sum above said of his Brother Phillip and Nicholas at the time severally appointed and go in equal share. divided by Law. Further I Ordain that the Grain in the fields or otherwise on my plantation shall remain for the necessary food and nourishment of the family now living with me. also the meat. the several Books I do it wish to be sold but to be divided as they best can agree for them. Milsent Baxer. my trusty friend I ordain constitute and make him also my sole Executor of this my last will and Testament. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this twenty eight day of June A.D. one thousand seven hundred and ninety nine